

The 18th International Scientific Conference “DEFENSE RESOURCES MANAGEMENT
IN THE 21st CENTURY”
Brasov, November 9th - 10th 2023

Ms. Ioana CONSTANTIN-BERCEAN, PhD.

*Scientific Researcher at "Ion I.C. Brătianu" Institute of Political Science and International Relations,
Romanian Academy*

Ioana Constantin-Bercean, PhD, is an international affair professional with solid academic experience and has worked abroad for over a decade. She is currently employed as Scientific Researcher at “Ion I.C. Brătianu” Institute of Political Science and International Relations, Romanian Academy, and scholarship holder of a post-doctoral program of the Faculty of European Studies, UBB, Cluj-Napoca, with a research topic on Turkey’s foreign policy at the Centenary of the Republic. Dr. Constantin-Bercean is the author of numerous articles in specialized publications dealing with topics related to Middle East, particularly on Iran, and nuclear nonproliferation. She has studied or collaborated on various projects as an associate researcher at various Western institutions: International Institute for Peace (Vienna, Austria), Diplomatische Akademie Wien (Austria), Vienna Center for Disarmament and Non-Proliferation (Austria) and Hudson Institute, Washington, D.C. (USA). She is the author of two individual volumes, "Reinforcing Deterrence on NATO's Eastern Flank", Riga: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing (2017) and "The Great Powers' Nuclear Diplomacy toward Iran, 2003-2015", Cambridge Scholars Publishing (2022), as well as of numerous articles published in volumes and scientific journals in the USA, Austria, Poland, Hungary, Germany and the UK. She is fluent in English, French and Spanish, and speaks Farsi, Arabic and Turkish conversationally. Fields of interest: international relations, foreign policy, security studies, behavioral sociology in international relations.